Market Overview & Business Strategy

Large, Fragmented Market

U.S. Collision Repair Market

- Revenue for North American collision repair industry is estimated to be approximately US$38.0 billion annually (U.S. $35.7B, CDA $2.3B)
- 32,400 shops in the U.S.
- Composition of the collision repair market in the U.S.:

Evolving Collision Repair Market

- Long-term decline of independent and dealership repair facilities
 - Total number of independent and dealership collision repair locations has declined by 24.7% from late 2007 to 2016, and almost 60% over the past 36 years
- Large multi-shop collision repair operator (“MSO”) market share opportunity
 - Large MSOs represented 7.7% of total locations in 2016 and 24.6% of estimated 2016 revenue (up from 9.1% in 2006) in the U.S.
 - 80 MSOs had revenues of $20 million or greater in 2016
 - The top 10 MSOs together represent 70.5% of revenue of large MSOs
 - MSOs benefit from standardized processes, integration of technology platforms and expense reduction through large-scale supply chain management

Strong Relationships with Insurance Companies through DRPs

- Direct Repair Programs (“DRPs”) are established between insurance companies and collision repair shops to better manage auto repair claims and the level of customer satisfaction
- Auto insurers utilize DRPs for a growing percentage of collision repair claims volume
- Growing preference among insurers for DRP arrangements with multi-location collision repair operators
- Boyd is well positioned to take advantage of these DRP trends with all major insurers and most regional insurers
- Boyd’s relationship with insurance customers
 - Top 5 largest customers contribute 44% of revenue
 - Largest customer contributes 14% of revenue

Impact of Collision Avoidance Systems

- CCC estimates technology will reduce accident frequency by ~30% in next 25-30 years
- Collision avoidance technology may lessen the extent of damage in some accidents, leading to less required repairs, but also a higher percentage of repairable vehicles (less total losses)
- Offsetting factors to accident frequency decline include:
 - Increases in repair costs due to the additional repair or replacement requirements of collision avoidance technology; and
 - Increases in vehicle miles driven resulting from increases in ride-share and related increased utilization of registered vehicles
- Large operators could also mitigate market decline by continued market share gains in consolidating industry

SSSG - Optimizing Returns from Existing Operations

Same-store sales increases in 33 of 40 most recent quarters

*Total Company, excluding FX.

Adjusting for the positive impact of hail in Q4-10, Q4-11 SSSG was 4.7%

Adjusting for the negative impact of Hurricane Irma and Hurricane Harvey, Q3-17 SSSG was 1.0%

Focus on Accretive Growth

- Goal: double the size of the business during the five-year period ending in 2020*
- Implied average annual growth rate of 15%:
 - Same-store sales
 - Acquisition or development of single locations
 - Acquisition of multiple-location businesses
- Well-positioned to take advantage of large acquisitions

Growth from 2015 on a constant currency basis.*

Strong Growth in Collision Locations

- May 2013: acquisition of Glass America added 61 retail auto glass locations
- March 2016: acquisition of 4 retail auto glass locations

Financial Flexibility

- Cash of $73.2 million
- Net Debt to EBITDA TTM ratio of 1.1x
- 5-year committed facility of US$300 million which can increase to US$450 million with accordion feature, maturing May 2022
- Over $400 million in cash and available credit
- Only public company in the industry
 - Access to all capital markets

U.S. Tax Reform Impact

- U.S. effective tax rate decreased by 13% after considering state taxes beginning January 1, 2018
- Proforma 2017 (if tax reform was effective January 1, 2017): would have lowered total tax expense (current and deferred) by approximately $11.0M
- Boyd's low leverage makes interest deductibility limitation very unlikely to impact Boyd unless its leverage increases significantly in the future
- Tax efficiency of the income trust structure is still maintained, however the benefit is reduced due to lower U.S. tax rate
- The Company is currently rolling out enhancements to benefits for U.S. employees that will be funded by a portion of the tax savings to be realized from U.S. Tax Reform

Distributions

Annualized distributions have increased by 12.8% since 2012

Outlook

- Increase North American presence through:
 - Drive same-store sales growth through enhanced capacity utilization, development of DRP arrangements and leveraging existing major and regional insurance relationships
 - Acquire or develop new single locations as well as the acquisition of multi-location collision repair businesses
- Margin enhancement opportunities through operational excellence and leveraging scale over time
- Double size of the business during the five-year period ending in 2020*

Growth from 2015 on a constant currency basis.*

Summary

Focus on enhancing unitholders' value
