

Gerber Collision & Glass Acquires Two Repair Centers in Maryland

Chicago, Illinois – May 18, 2021 – The Boyd Group Inc. (the “Boyd Group”) announced the acquisition of two collision repair centers in Baltimore and Reisterstown, Maryland.

These locations operated as Camden Body & Fender, founded 96 years ago, and is one of the oldest collision repairers in Maryland. Baltimore is the most populous city in Maryland and 30th largest city in the U.S. The population of the Baltimore metropolitan area is approximately 2.8 million people. Reisterstown is a residential suburb located northwest of Baltimore. Just outside of Reisterstown is Camp Fretterd, a training site for the Maryland Army National Guard and Air Guard.

“We welcome these experienced teams and are eager to expand on their longstanding reputation for delivering high-quality repairs and great customer service,” said Kevin Burnett, COO of Gerber Collision & Glass. “These repair centers are located 12 miles from each other and will introduce our brand to new customers and enhance our ability to further assist our insurance clients in these markets.”

The Boyd Group is continuously looking to add new collision repair locations to its existing network in Canada and the U.S. Interested collision repair center owners are asked to contact Jason Hope at the coordinates below for more information.
